

SITTING AT THE TABLE WITH JUDAS

SCRIPTURE: JOHN 13:1-30

Jesus could have easily exiled, exposed, embarrassed, or even eliminated Judas altogether, and yet instead He chose to extend mercy, love, and grace - even to a known enemy. There's this quote that says, "It's the people that irk you the most, that God will use to grow you. Truth be told, you won't learn how to love well if you only love loveable folks."
